

13th IAAF WORLD JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIPS MONCTON 19 – 25 July 2010

CANADA

More than 2,000 athletes and team officials from more than 180 countries will be welcomed to Moncton, New Brunswick – Canada for the 13th World Junior Championships in Athletics. The newly constructed, 10,000-seat stadium at Université de Moncton will host the event. Spectators will be able to see some of the world's very best junior athletes in action. Many of these athletes will compete again at the London 2012 Olympic Games. The city's vibrant downtown, a variety of festivals and top-notch restaurants and make it a great place to visit.

ACCOMMODATION

The Crowne Plaza Moncton Downtown is located within close proximity to the stadium (2 miles) and is serviced by shopping outlets and many restaurants. Approximately seven miles from Moncton Airport. Hotel amenities include an indoor pool and hot tub, steam room and fitness facility, restaurant, and wine bar. 24 hour room service is available. Parking, local calls, long distance access, Internet access, and use of the business centre are all free of charge. All rooms feature cable TV, clock radios, coffeemakers, hair dryers, irons, and modem lines.

FLIGHTS

There are no direct flights into Moncton from the UK but there are daily indirect flights from London Heathrow with British Airways/Air Canada (AC) via Montreal with good connection times. On certain dates regional charter flights from Glasgow, Manchester and London Gatwick can be offered via Toronto. If booking the below Enchanting Islands Tour, the return flight is direct from Halifax (5 hours) and for the Newfoundland Explorer the direct return is from St. Johns (5 hours).
