

The 33rd European Indoor Championships in Athletics will take place in the Prague O2 arena, which is easily accessible from the city centre. It has been 37 years since Prague has hosted this event but is an annual fixture for the International Indoor Grand Prix Praha. Lying in the heart of Europe, Prague ranks amongst one of the most impressive historical and cultural cities in the world and our programme will not only include 3 action packed days of high quality athletics but will also allow time for exploring the city and seeing the many sights the city has to offer.
