

EUROPEAN CHAMPS PARIS 2020

Final Programme
Bulletin V – Mar 2020

25 – 30 AUGUST 2020

The Stade Charlety hosts the European Championships for the first time providing an ideal opportunity to once again visit the French capital. For many regular clients it will be a welcome return to this majestic city that hosted the IAAF World Athletics Championships in 2003 and more recently the European Indoors in 2011.

EVENT TICKETS:

The Charlety stadium is located in the south of the city and has covered seating with an elevated upper ring tier on the home straight and a two level lower ring on all other sides. We have secured guaranteed allotments of seats in the prime seating areas of the finish line area, mid-home straight on the upper tier and also opposite the finish line on the back straight in both the lower and upper levels. Join 200+ clients already booked!

PARIS HOTELS

With the stadium located in the south of the city we have reserved hotel rooms in properties south of the Seine river within 15-30 minutes of the stadium using the excellent Paris metro / RER network or by walking. All are located within easy access of the main tourist sites and sights so that you can combine watching the competition with sightseeing. With it being high season in Paris our selection of three 4* rated hotels booked in March 2019 all offer very good value for their category. Our A1 & A3 4* hotel options in particular have very spacious rooms by Parisian standards and also have their own restaurants and bars for the convenience of clients. With our comfortable A2 hotel within 10-20 mins of the stadium we consider our selection of properties very suitable for the event. We also have a comfortable 3* hotel for our “Clubs – Coaches & Athletes” programme in partnership with England Athletics which regular fans can book too.
